14th ANNUAL INN GOLF CLASSIC SINKS HOLE IN ONE, RAISES OVER $150,000 TO FIGHT HUNGER & HOMELESSNESS

Hempstead, NY (Sept. 25, 2009) – The INN (Interfaith Nutrition Network) raised over $150,000 at it's 14th Annual Golf Classic in their effort to fight hunger and homelessness on Long Island.

On Monday, September 21, 2009, at the Cold Spring Country Club in Huntington, over 150 participants joined to honor Jubran Jubran of JC Jubran & Company, for his dedication to The INN's mission.

Jubran was presented with a silver soup spoon acknowledging his contributions to The INN and received a standing ovation for his efforts.

“We are fortunate that so many generous supporters came together in these challenging times to assist their fellow Long Islanders in need through this outing,” said Sal Ferro, of Alure Home Improvements and co-chair of this annual event. “We hope this event continues to help raise awareness and support for The INN as the organization continues to grow to assist so many.”

The INN

The INN (Interfaith Nutrition Network) is a dynamic, not-for-profit, volunteer-based organization working to resolve Long Island's hunger and homelessness issues by providing food, shelter, long-term housing, and supportive services in a dignified and respectful manner to families and individuals seeking assistance. A dedicated staff, committed volunteers, and broad-based community support help The INN to deliver its services through 19 soup kitchens, three homeless shelters, and 25 long-term housing apartments. As one of Long Island's largest private social service agencies, The INN is ranked among the most cost-effective charities in the United States.
