ALURE HOME IMPROVEMENTS, INC., LEAD BUILDERS FOR EXTREME MAKEOVER: HOME EDITION, HOLDS ONSITE FOOD DRIVE FOR THE INN
-- Food Drive, June 22-26, 2010 in East Setauket --

Hempstead, NY (June 21, 2010) – Alure Home Improvements, Inc., lead builders for Extreme Makeover: Home Edition, will be holding an onsite food drive for The INN (Interfaith Nutrition Network) Tuesday, June 22, 2010 - Saturday, June 26, 2010 during the makeover of the Lutz Family home in East Setauket.

Come to the spectator parking site; located at 17 North Belle Mead Ave., in East Setauket, to get a peek at the house, and bring a non-perishable food item to donate to The INN as well.

“We are honored that Alure has thought to include us in such an exciting Long Island project!” said Cynthia Sucich, INN Director of Communications. “Alure is not only a premiere contractor, but a premier philanthropist, as the company is always finding new ways to give back to those in need on Long Island.”

The INN will be onsite collecting food and spreading the word about hunger and homelessness on Long Island throughout the week. Food can be dropped off at The INN tent, located at 17 North Belle Mead Ave., East Setauket.

For more information on the food drive, call Emily Wilensky at (516) 486-8506 ext. 138.

The INN

The INN (Interfaith Nutrition Network) is a dynamic, not-for-profit, volunteer-based organization working to resolve Long Island’s hunger and homelessness issues by providing food, shelter, long-term housing, and supportive services in a dignified and respectful manner to families and individuals seeking assistance. A dedicated staff, committed volunteers, and broad-based community support helps The INN to deliver its services through 19 soup kitchens, three homeless shelters, and 25 long-term housing apartments. As one of Long Island’s largest private social service agencies, The INN is ranked among the most cost-effective charities in the United States. For more information on The INN please visit www.the-inn.org or call (516) 486-8506.
