2nd ANNUAL INN LUNCHEON RAISES OVER $95,000 TO FIGHT HUNGER & HOMELESSNESS

Hempstead, NY (Feb. 14, 2011) – Over 300 supporters come out to help The INN (Interfaith Nutrition Network) raise over $95,000 to fight hunger and homelessness at its 2nd Annual INN Luncheon.

On Wednesday, February 2, 2011 friends of The INN joined at the Garden City Hotel to honor Peter Curry and Farrell Fritz, PC, Honorable Zelda Jonas, Nassau County Bar Association, and Nassau County Women’s Bar Association, for their dedication to The INN’s mission.

“The INN is so fortunate to have such a generous array of friends who are devoted to our mission of serving hungry and homeless Long Islanders,” said Joe Barry, Director of Fundraising for The INN. “The long time financial support of today’s honorees has assisted the agency in not only providing food, shelter, and assistance to those in need, but quality legal information for the guests and our agency.”

The INN

The INN (Interfaith Nutrition Network) is a dynamic, not-for-profit, volunteer-based organization working to resolve Long Island's hunger and homelessness issues by providing food, shelter, long-term housing, and supportive services in a dignified and respectful manner to families and individuals seeking assistance. A dedicated staff, committed volunteers, and broad-based community support helps The INN to deliver its services through 19 soup kitchens, three homeless shelters, and 25 long-term housing apartments. As one of Long Island's largest private social service agencies, The INN is ranked among the most cost-effective charities in the United States.
