“We are grateful for the continuous support we receive from the Gold Coast Cruisers,” said Jean Kelly, INN Executive Director. “The club and its members have been vital in helping to educate the public about the issue of hunger and homelessness on Long Island.”

The INN

The INN (Interfaith Nutrition Network) is a dynamic, not-for-profit, volunteer-based organization working to resolve Long Island’s hunger and homelessness issues by providing food, shelter, long-term housing, and supportive services in a dignified and respectful manner to families and individuals seeking assistance. A dedicated staff, committed volunteers, and broad-based community support help The INN to deliver its services through 19 soup kitchens, three homeless shelters, and 25 long-term housing apartments. As one of Long Island’s largest private social service agencies, The INN is ranked among the most cost-effective charities in the United States.
